Jordan Frary

Jordan Frary, 27, of Onondaga Hill, passed away Sunday, April 5, 2020, when a deer collided with his motorcycle. A 2011 graduate of Westhill High School, Jordan attended Onondaga Community College and was employed as a security equipment technician with Ber-National Controls, Inc. Jordan was predeceased by his maternal grandmother, Joan DiRaddo; and paternal grandfather, Donald Frary. Surviving are his parents, Greg and Cindy Frary of Onondaga Hill; sister, Kelsey Frary of Onondaga Hill; brother, Ryan (Heather Malagese) Korrie of North Syracuse; maternal grandfather, Louie Korrie of Bradenton, FL; paternal grandmother, Claire (Ray) Charette of Massena; niece, Alexa Korrie of Fairmount; many aunts, uncles and cousins; and beloved dogs, Roxy and Lilly. Jordan lived his life to the fullest while pursuing his passions of fishing, hunting and riding motorcycles, dirt bikes, snowmobiles and four-wheelers. Jordan's friends, family and pets meant the world to him. Always with a smile on his face, he touched the lives of many and was loved by everyone.
